ORDER

As per Government order read first above paperless bill system was introduced on a pilot basis for the monthly salary bills of Finance and Treasury departments from 10/2019 onwards and as per Government orders read 2nd to 4th above the paperless bill system was extended to more departments. Further as per GO read 5th paper above sanction was accorded to draw the salary bills of the aided Educational institutions without counter signature, as detailed therein.

Government are now pleased to extend paperless monthly salary bill system to Education Departments and aided institutions covered under GO read 5th above.

Director of Treasuries and SPARK PMU are hereby directed to make immediate necessary arrangements to facilitate the smooth transactions of online, digitally authenticated paperless monthly salary bills of these departments from 08/2021 onwards and ensure that such claims are passed in Treasuries after due verification of the documents/bills received online.

Necessary codal amendments in this regard will be issued later.
